

opposition to media consolidation

I am writing to you again to protest the proposed relaxation of the rules governing media ownership. The ability to obtain diverse points of view is crucial to maintaining democracy. The proposed changes strike at the heart of our country. I deeply oppose the rule changes and have registered my opposition with my elected representatives. Irene Gillooly